Colección StoneWare

Reactive

El proceso de fabricación de los productos StoneWare Eurodra comienza con la meticulosa preparación de la arcilla, también conocida como el cuerpo verde. Esta es moldeada mediante una máquina de presión para obtener la forma deseada y, posteriormente, se traslada a nuestra línea de producción.

En esta etapa, sumergimos el producto en el esmalte interior y exterior por separado para asegurar una cobertura uniforme. Retiramos el exceso de esmalte en la parte inferior para garantizar una superficie perfecta y se aplica a mano una capa adicional de esmalte que realce su calidad estética.

Cada producto se deja reposar cuidadosamente antes de introducirlo en el horno, y este se somete a una temperatura de cocción de 1200 grados Celsius. Este paso es crucial y garantiza la durabilidad y estabilidad térmica del producto.

El proceso de fabricación de los productos StoneWare Eurodra comienza con la meticulosa preparación de la arcilla, también conocida como el cuerpo verde. Esta es moldeada mediante una máquina de presión para obtener la forma deseada y, posteriormente, se traslada a nuestra línea de producción.

En esta etapa, sumergimos el producto en el esmalte interior y exterior por separado para asegurar una cobertura uniforme. Retiramos el exceso de esmalte en la parte inferior para garantizar una superficie perfecta y se aplica a mano una capa adicional de esmalte que realce su calidad estética.

Cada producto se deja reposar cuidadosamente antes de introducirlo en el horno, y este se somete a una temperatura de cocción de 1200 grados Celsius. Este paso es crucial y garantiza la durabilidad y estabilidad térmica del producto.

La colección StoneWare, así como cada uno de nuestros productos, es una obra de arte hecha a mano, única y con el sello distintivo de la dedicación y excelencia en cada etapa del proceso de fabricación.
